

Programme

09.00 Welcome

Rachel Curtis Gravesen, Moderator
Claus Ingar Jensen, DIRF Chairman
Tina Aggerholm, Chief Consultant, DI

09.15 Creating the largest Scandinavian non-life insurer – 20 years in the making

Barbara Plucnar Jensen, CFO, Tryg
Gianandrea Roberti, Head of IR and External Reporting, Tryg

The acquisition of RSA Scandinavia is a game changer for Tryg. Barbara Plucnar Jensen (Group CFO) and Gianandrea Roberti (Head of IR and External Reporting) will take us through this transformative journey from a strategic, financial and operational perspective.

10.00 The changing landscape of ESG: Latest trends, new regulation and the role of IR

Lars Rasmussen, Chairman of the Committee for Good Corporate Governance, Chairman of Board in Coloplast and Lundbeck

Focus on ethics, moral and avoiding greenwashing in times with increased focus on sustainability, much regulatory change and most recently also much criticism.

ESG and the board – what works

Jeanette Fangel Løgstrup, non-executive director of JP Politikens Hus, Andel Energi etc. and author of "Bæredygtig ledelse – ESG som den nye ABC for ledelser og bestyrelser".

How to ensure that ESG is not only focused on risk but is balanced with opportunities for companies and their stakeholders.

DSV – the ESG landscape seen from the driver's seat of a truck

Flemming O. Nielsen, Executive Vice President, Head of IR
Martin Andreasen, Executive Vice President, Group Sustainability & Compliance

Investors, proxy advisors, rating agencies, regulators etc. – there are many stakeholders across the ESG landscape, and you cannot make everybody happy. Martin and Flemming share DSV's top learnings from the past years.

11.00 Coffee break ☕

11.30 The economy on the threshold of slowdown

Las Olsen, Chief Economist, Danske Bank

Very high inflation means that an economic slowdown is coming, and that will have a significant impact on both earnings and everyday life in many businesses over the coming year.

12.00 Break-out sessions 🗨️

DIRF intro – best practice:
Cristina Rønde Hefting, Head of Investor Relations & Press, HusCompagniet
Anders Hjort, VP, Head of Investor Relations, SimCorp

New to DIRF and the network? This session will give you a brief introduction to our best practice guide and other services.

S&P Global – Charting the ESG Roadmap – Insights from IR:
Helen Wood-Gush, Senior ESG & Sustainability Consultant, S&P Global Marketing

Amidst growing stakeholder expectations on ESG, having a clear strategy and roadmap is key to long-term success. S&P Global brings an outside in view from the perspective of the ESG Advisory Team on what constitutes a holistic and tactical approach to meeting investor expectations.

12.30 Lunch 🍴

13.15 Asset manager approach to active ownership, stewardship, proxy and risk management

Benjamin Friedrich, Director, BlackRock Investment Stewardship

As one of the world's leading providers of investment, advisory and risk management solutions, Benjamin Friedrich will give an insight to BlackRock's approach to active ownership, stewardship, approach to over-boarding, remuneration, diversity, and other important topics.

Claus Wiinblad, Senior VP, ATP

ATP is Denmark's largest investor with DKK 460 bn invested. Risk diversification is a priority and green investments is a growing focus area. Learn more about ATP's approach.

14.00 The never-ending search for funding

Carsten Borring, AVP, Nasdaq CPH Listing
Mikael Bak, CEO, Danish Shareholder Association
Tue Østergaard, Founder and CEO, HCA Capital
Niels Buus, CEO, GomSpace

How to get funding, the right coverage and the role of retail investors.

14.30 Coffee break ☕

15.00 Break-out sessions 🗨️

Simon Taylor, Managing Director Denmark, Position Green
Anders de Lichtenberg, Managing Director Denmark, Position Green

How do the top 100 companies on Nasdaq Copenhagen rank in ESG reporting. What are the gaps to investor needs and upcoming regulatory requirements? What are the top ESG reporting trends for listed companies in Scandinavia? Find out more at the presentation of the first ESG100 Nordic report in Denmark.

Alexandra Hall, Head of Investor Relations Sales
– EMEA & APAC, AlphaSense
Felix Weston, Investor Relations, AlphaSense

How IR teams are utilising AI to craft external comms in challenging times.

15.30 The changing role of IR

Jannick Lindegaard Denholt, Head of IR, FLSmidth
Mathias Holten Møller, Head of Investor Relations, Demant
Lea Vindvad Hansen, Investor Relations & Communications, Everfuel
Cristina Rønde Hefting, Head of IR & Press, HusCompagniet

Panel of IR professionals highlighting the changes seen the past year, and what has changed in their current role

16.00 The reporting landscape is changing – impact on IR now and beyond

Kristian Koktvedgaard, Head of VAT, Accounting & Auditing at DI; EFRAG SR board member, EFRAG FR Deputy Board member

Update on the latest developments on the reporting frontier and line up the key challenges for the IR-teams

Thomas Steen Hansen, Director, KPMG Investor Relations Services
Philip Linnemann, Executive Creative Director & Partner, Kontrapunkt
Kristian Koktvedgaard, Head of VAT, Accounting & Auditing, DI

Operationalisation of key challenges by explaining the market trends and building on practical recommendations.

17.00 Take-aways from the day – thank you for joining us

Rachel Curtis Gravesen

Drinks reception - Networking 🍷

Sponsor overview

Main sponsor

Dansk Industri

Premium conference sponsor

AlphaSense

BystedFFW

Computershare

EURONEXT
CORPORATE SERVICES

Position Green*

Q4

/ritzau/

S&P Global Market Intelligence

Conference sponsor

Nasdaq

Noted